SIR

With reference to Government Order No 7L 9-10/ d 6SU-Ds-S dated 22nd February 1907 I have the honour to inform you that a grant-in-aid is not generally given before a school has been started successfully and proved the need for its existence This implies the outlay of a certain amount of money from the funds at the disposal of the managers The grant-in-aid is given to relieve to some extent the burden thus borne by the managers The amount of the grant may be spent in developing the school or else the savings made by non-payment in consequence of the grant may be utilised for a fresh effort in some other locality

The grant for the Hosur school has not been paid since November 1st 1906 when the school was closed

I have the honour to be

Sir

Your most obedient servant
